

WOTTON + KEARNEY APIG SCHOLARSHIP

SUBMISSIONS NOW OPEN!

apig.

The annual W+K APIG Scholarship supports the development of young professionals practising in professional indemnity and financial lines insurance in Australia. The scholarship recognises an outstanding contribution to the industry each year and is open to current APIG members under the age of 36 who are actively involved in financial lines insurance, and who will significantly benefit from the scholarship experience.

Candidates are required to produce a brief submission outlining their background in financial lines insurance and their views on the industry from a perspective that affects them. Submissions will be judged by a panel comprising four members of the APIG National Committee and a representative from Wotton + Kearney with the winner announced at the APIG National Conference Gala Dinner in Sydney on 6 September 2018.
