The successful candidate will be selected by a five person judging panel comprising:

- the APIG National President;
- the Chair of the APIG Recognition Committee;
- two members of the APIG National Committee; and
- one representative from Wotton + Kearney.

6. Selection Process

The panel will select the successful candidate entirely at their discretion but taking into account the following criteria:

- the merit of the candidate's submission;
- the relative benefit of the award to the particular candidate; and
- the relative benefit to the industry arising from the selection.

The panel may decide to interview the best five candidates before awarding the Scholarship. The panel will seek the specific input of each APIG State President as to who the Scholarship should be awarded to. If a deadlock is reached, the APIG National President will have the deciding vote.

If for any reason the winner is unable to accept the Scholarship Package or attend the PIF Conference, the judging panel will award the Scholarship to the next applicant they deem has best met the Scholarship criteria.

The panel's decision is final and no discussions with candidates will be entered into.

7. Scholarship Holder's Obligation

The successful candidate acknowledges that:

- the Scholarship cannot be exchanged for any other benefit;
- attendance at every session of the PIF Conference is compulsory;

In no event will Wotton + Kearney or APIG be liable if unforeseen circumstances arise which prevent the successful candidate from attending the conference.
